

Avani K L

CERAMIC DESIGNER & FINE ARTIST

I am a design enthusiast and an independent artist who understands and deals with multiple mediums. My artistic journey has primarily unfolded through the medium of illustration, where I've poured my aesthetic and creative expressions into intricate patterns and designs. As an independent artist, I aim to navigate through various artistic mediums, exploring their depths and possibilities. Beyond conventional ceramic vessels and decorative items, I aspire to cultivate a distinct artistic language and forge a unique voice. For me, crafting tangible products with my own hands is infused with my expression.
